MAUNDY
THURSDAY

Thursday 28th March 2024, Maundy Thursday

The Celtic Church connected easily with the natural world around it and did not strive to control nature but instead focussed on the power between, in an equality of life. This service is drawn from that tradition.

Hymn: 304 Once, only once and once for all

Welcome

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Gather around for the table is spread. (said or sung) welcome the food and rest!

Wide is our circle, with Christ at the head,
he is the honoured guest.

Learn of his love, grow in his grace, pray for the peace he gives;
here at this meal, here in this place,
know that his Spirit lives!

Once he was known in the breaking of bread, shared with a chosen few;
multitudes gathered and by him were fed;
so he will feed us too.

(Tune: Skye Boat Song)

Let us make room in our hearts to welcome Christ in one another.

Christ is in you. Christ is in me.

Let us welcome Christ in friend or stranger at the door.

Christ is in them. Christ is in us.

Jesus said: Where two or three are gathered together in my name, I am there in their midst.

Christ is present with us now.

Confession and Absolution (sit)

God, make us holy.

Christ make us holy.

In the name of the Spirit holy,

God, the Three all-holy,
we confess our sins to you,
Father, Son and Spirit holy.
For our careless talk,
our broken promises,
our empty speech,
for all that we have left undone,
for all that we have done amiss,
compassionate God of life,
your kindly pardon give.

Jesus tender lamb, as we receive your forgiveness
enshield us, encircle us each day and night.
Uphold us, be our treasure,
our triumph everlasting,
strong Son of our God most high.

Collect: Kindle in our hearts, O God,
the flame of love that never ceases,
that it may burn in us, giving light to others.
May we shine for ever in your temple,
set on fire with your eternal light,
even your Son Jesus Christ,
our Saviour and our Redeemer.
Amen.

Reading 1: Exodus 12 1-14

Reading 2: 1 Corinthians 11 23-26

Hymn: 297 Lord Jesus Christ you have come to us

Gospel: John 13 1-17, 31-35

Homily: The Revd Canon Christine Fraser

The Creed: We believe, O God of all gods, that you are the eternal maker of life.
We believe, O God of all gods,
that you are the eternal maker of love.

We believe, O Lord and God of all people,
that you are the Creator of the high heavens,
that you are the Creator of the skies above,
that you are the Creator of the oceans below.

We believe, O Lord and God of all people,
that you are the One who created our souls and set their course, that you are the One who created our bodies from earth, that you gave to our bodies their breath and to our souls their possession.

God bless to us our bodies.

God bless to us our souls.

God bless to us our living.

God bless to us our goals.

Handwashing for Service

Creator God

We give you praise and thanks.

For you brought creation to birth,
made us in your image,
saw the goodness of your creation,
and called us blessed.

We see you revealed in Jesus.

Who laid aside power
to proclaim the coming of your kingdom,
by riding a donkey
along a dusty road
to the praises of a crowd, shouting Hosanna Blesséd is he who comes in the name of the Lord

Hosanna in the highest

We come together here in the name of Jesus
who in the night that he was betrayed took water and a towel knelt at the feet of his friends and washed their feet

asking that his friends remember him
and live by his example.

Spirit of God, be with us
as our hands are washed in a gesture of loving remembrance.
Help us to bring in your kingdom
by acts of love.
In the name of one who lived and laughed
and loved and wept
and died
and rose again
that we might know the way of living in your love.

Everyone is invited to come forward if they wish and have their hands washed and anointed for service

Prayers of Intercession

(at the end of the prayers)

Lord in your mercy

All: Hear our prayers.

The Peace

Peace with yourself
Peace with creation
Peace with one another.
The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

(We share God's peace with each other)

Hymn: 95 When I survey the wondrous cross

The Great Thanksgiving (sit)

The Lord be with you

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Worship and praise belong to you, Father,
in every place and at all times.

You made us,
all the people of the world,
and everything that is.

You give us the daylight.
Your Word lights up our minds.
Jesus was born among us
to be light in our darkness.
Your Spirit lives in us
so that we can look at the world with your eyes.

One day we will be with you in heaven,
but already we rejoice with the saints and angels,
and sing their joyful song:

Holy, holy, holy Lord
God of power and might.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Father, you never forget us or turn away from us,
even when we fail you.
You sent your Son Jesus
who gave his life for us.
He healed those who were sick,
cared for those who were poor,
and cried with those who were sad.

He forgave sinners
and taught us to forgive.
For all your love we give you thanks
in the way that Jesus showed us.

On the night before he died,
while he was having supper with his friends,
he took bread and offered you thanks.

He broke the bread,
and gave it to them, saying:
"Take, eat.
This is my Body: it is broken for you."
After supper, he took the cup,
he offered you thanks,
and gave it to them saying:
Drink this, all of you.
This is my Blood of the new covenant;
it is poured out for you, and for all,
that sins may be forgiven.
Do this in remembrance of me."

So, as we do what he told us,
we open our hearts to him;
we remember how he died and rose again
to live now in us.

Together with him we offer you these gifts:
in them we give you ourselves.
Send your Holy Spirit on us and on this bread and this wine,
that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ,
and that, sharing your life,
we may travel in your company to our journey's end.

With all your people
we give you thanks and praise
through the Son and in the Spirit,
now and for ever.

Amen.

The living bread is broken for the life of the world.

Lord unite us in this sign.

As our Saviour Christ has commanded and taught us, we are bold to say:

Our Father,
who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come; thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Come, you who are loved by God inherit the kingdom prepared for you before the foundation of the world.
The gifts of God for the people of God.

Sharing of the bread and wine.

Hymn 92 There is a green hill far away

May the rainbow of many colours bind you to God himself.
May the soft winds of heaven refresh your spirit and may sunshine brighten your heart.
May the burdens of the day rest lightly upon you.
May God enfold you in love.
And may the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, bringing peace beyond all understanding be with you and remain with you,
and all you love, now and forever. Amen
